Invitation

Dear Friends

It is with immense pleasure, we cordially invite you to Chandigarh-the City Beautiful to participate in the live operative workshop & 1st Annual Meeting of Urolithiasis Subsection of Urological Society of India, scheduled for May 13-14 , 2023 at PGIMER, Chandigarh. The highlight of the workshop include the various Endo-urolological procedures for the management of stone as well as new advancement & technology used for the same. We have experts from International and national arena who would be demonstrating these state of the art surgical procedures and lectures. PGIMER, Chandigarh is a centre of excellence for teaching and training and our focus is on advancement of knowledge and learning. We expect participation of over 200 delegates consisting of practising urologists, fellows and residents .

We are sure that the conference would be a very useful platform to exchange thoughts and experience amongst experts in this field which will kindle the minds of all the participants and stimulate them towards further innovation. Chandigarh is a fully planned modern city nestled in the foothills of the Himalayas and well connected with rail and air travel.

The places to visit are Sukhna Lake, Rock Garden and Rose Garden.
Looking forward to welcome you in Chandigarh.
